O R D E R

After a careful de novo review of the record in this case, the Court concurs with the Magistrate's Report and Recommendation, to which objections have been filed. Accordingly the Report and Recommendation is adopted as the opinion of the Court, and all of the above captioned actions are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

In addition, the Court agrees that it must protect its staff from being mired in the pointless and seemingly endless task of processing Tonya Marie Arledege's voluminous frivolous filings. Consequently, Ms. Arledge must seek leave of the Court before filing any further lawsuits or other pleadings in this District. To that end, the Clerk of the Court is DIRECTED to open a miscellaneous file for the purpose of tracking any pleadings submitted by Ms. Arledge. This Order shall be docketed in that file. If Ms. Arledge presents any future pleading to the Clerk of the Court, the Clerk shall receive the pleading and make a notation in the miscellaneous file of such receipt. However, rather than docketing the pleading, the Clerk shall forward it to the undersigned for a determination of whether Ms. Arledge's claims have any arguable merit. Only if the Court allows the pleading to be filed will it be docketed.¹

SO ORDERED, this 23rd day of August, 2006.

WILLIAM T. MOORE, JR., CHIEF JUDGE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA

¹For the time being, this restriction does not apply to pleadings filed in Ms. Arledge's pending action Arledge v. Potter, Case No. 4:05-CV-161 (S.D. Ga. filed Sep. 7, 2005). However, if Ms. Arledge files a barrage of frivolous motions in that action or attempts to use that action to skirt the restrictions of this Order, the restrictions will be placed on her pleadings in that action as well.
